On Christmas Night

English Folksong arr. Stefan Karpiniec

	On Christ - mas Then why should Now sin de - Then out of	night all Chris-tians men on earth be so part, be - hold his dark - ness we see	sing, To hear what sad Since our Re grace, Ever - last - ing light Which makes all	news those an - gels - deem - er made us life comes in its an - gels tosing this
				(1)0 000
. .	On Christ - mas Then why should Now sin de - Then out of	night all Chris-tians men on earth be so part, be - hold his dark - ness we see	sing, To hear what sad Since our Re grace, Ever - last - ing light Which makes all	news those an - gels - deem - er made us life comes in its an - gels to sing this
	• •		‡ ⊘·
Ū	On Christ - mas Then why should Now sin de - Then out of	night all Chris-tians men on earth be so part, be - hold his dark - ness we see	sing, To hear what sad Since our Re grace, Ever - last - ing light Which makes all	news those an gels - deem - er made us life comes in its an - gels to sing this
9: , 3
	On Christ - mas Then why should	night all Chris-tians men on earth be so part, be - hold his	sing, To hear what sad Since our Re grace, Ever - last - ing	news those an - gels - deem - er made us life comes in its

5
					•
Q -					0
•	bring. News of great glad, Andwhen from place Andsoon we night: Glo ry to		mirth, News of our free All for to see, And poor and men Both now and	gain our li - ber	birth. ty? be. men.
A					0.
6 0	bring News of great glad, And when from place And soon we night: Glo - ry to		mirth, News of our free All for to see, And poor and men Both now and	gain our li - ber rich must con - quered	birth. ty? be.
$ 9 :,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,,	bring News glad, And place And night: Glo - ry to	joy and of great sin he set us shall its ter - ror God and peace to	mirth, News of our free All for to see, And poor and men Both now and	gain our li - ber rich must con - quered	birth. ty? be men.
	bring News of great glad, And when from place And soon we night: Glo - ry to	joy and of great sin he set us shall its ter - ror God andpeace to	mirth, News of our free All for to see, And poor and men Both now and	gain our li - ber - rich must con - quered	be.

Arrangement copyright © 2003 Stefan Karpiniec 38 Edge Avenue, Lenah Valley Tasmania 7008 All rights reserved