IntroPart A
Verse 1

Time changes everything,
 Even you and I have changed
 The rain the winters bring has made us fade away...

Part A'

I still remember everything,
 That old December, the fears, the cold,
 I really wonder how you feel
 On these nights, all alone...

Part BVerse 1

I hope some day you'll see me...
 I hope some day you'll spot me in the crowd...
 Take my hand and kiss me
 I hope some day you'll say my name out loud...

Part C

Tell me,
 tell me about your feelings,
 Tell me about your stories
 Look into my eyes and come on closer
 And make me immortal with a kiss

Part C'

Tell me,
 tell me about your feelings,
 Tell me about your stories
 We know it's over, so tell me it's over and life will be better in spring.

InterludePart A*Verse 2

Time changes everything,
 But this feeling, it still remains...
 The sweetness of the lips I kissed
 Will always be the same.

Part BVerse 2

I hope some day you'll see me...
 I hope some day you'll spot me in the crowd...
 Smile and say you miss me
 I hope some day you'll say my name out loud...
